

GLOBAL PURCHASING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

These General Conditions of Purchase (“Conditions”) shall apply to all deliveries of products (“Products”) and services (“Services”) made to Ammega Group B.V. and all its direct or indirect subsidiaries and affiliated companies (each of such entities, “AMMEGA”). These Conditions, together with the agreement between the Ammega and the entity providing Products and/or Services (“Supplier”) and together with AMMEGA, the “Parties”), if any (“Agreement”), or together with the Purchase Order (as amended and integrated from time to time) are collectively or individually referred to herein as the “Contract”. Signature of a Contract by both Parties is deemed acceptance of such Contract, including these Conditions.

This document consists of two parts: Part A contains the terms and conditions that generally apply to all purchases of Products and Services carried out by AMMEGA worldwide.

Part B contains country specific sets of terms and conditions which amend and integrate Part A and which respectively apply in the relevant AMMEGA’s jurisdiction only. In the case of a conflict or any discrepancy between Part A and Part B, the provisions of Part B shall prevail.

These Conditions shall apply exclusively. Differing or contrary terms shall not apply except if expressly agreed upon in writing. Unless otherwise agreed between the Parties, these Conditions shall also govern all future transactions between the Parties and shall also apply if AMMEGA accepts delivery despite knowledge of differing or contrary terms.

In the event any provision of Contract, including these Conditions, shall be held void, unenforceable, or prohibited by the laws, regulations and other mandatory requirements applicable in the AMMEGA’s or Supplier’s home countries, as well as the locations of manufacture, and delivery and reasonably anticipated use of Products and Services, including but not limited to those concerning corruption, money-laundering, the payment of bribes, tax evasion, export control, data protection, and economic sanctions (“Applicable Laws”), that provision shall be deemed deleted and the remainder of the provisions enforced as written; provided, however, that if such provision is a material clause, meaning the Parties would not have concluded Contract without it, the invalid provision will be amended by AMMEGA to comply with the law and reflect, to the greatest extent permitted by the Applicable Law, the original intent of the Parties.

In the event of an inconsistency between or among the terms of the documents that make up Contract, then:

- a) the terms of Agreement (as possibly revised and integrated from time to time) or Purchase Order (as possibly revised and integrated from time to time) respectively shall prevail over these Conditions and
- b) the terms of Purchase Order (as possibly revised and integrated from time to time) shall prevail over the terms of Agreement (as possibly revised and integrated from time to time).

Supplier recognizes that AMMEGA is entitled to amend the conditions from time to time, to ensure that it complies with the most updated laws and regulations and commercial needs. Such amendments will become effective when they are published on AMMEGA’s website, not subject to any prior notice to Supplier. Conditions are, in its most current version, available on: www.ammega.com/general-conditions

3.4. Title to Services shall transfer to AMMEGA upon the completion of the Services.

3.5. Acceptance of Products or Services. Inspection of, use of or payment for delivered Products or Services shall not constitute acceptance thereof. AMMEGA retains the sole rights to obtain, hold and renew, in its own name, any Intellectual Property Rights in or to Work Product. To the extent that the Intellectual Property Rights shall not automatically vest in AMMEGA, Supplier hereby assigns all of its rights, title and interest in the Intellectual Property Rights to AMMEGA. - 7.5. If Supplier breaches any of the representations and warranties as specified in Section 7, Supplier shall hold harmless and keep AMMEGA fully indemnified and shall ensure that AMMEGA in all matters is in the same situation as if the confirmed Purchase Order had been fulfilled in accordance with its content.

8. DELAYS. DEFECTS

- 8.1. In the event that a delivery is delayed, or in the event that Supplier anticipates that it will be unable to deliver Products or Services on the agreed date of delivery, Supplier must immediately notify AMMEGA, stating the reason for the delay. Such notification does not relieve the Supplier from its obligation to deliver on time.

- 8.2. Defects Notification. Any Products or Services that do not comply with Applicable Laws or agreed specification, including functional or technical specifications will be referred to as "Defective" and have "Defects". AMMEGA shall have a reasonable time to review and/or inspect all Products or Services to ascertain conformity to the agreed specification and Applicable Laws. Upon receipt of Products AMMEGA will only inspect Products for obvious Defects, such as transport damage and discrepancies of identity and quantity of the delivery, and AMMEGA will notify to Supplier any such Defect without undue delay. AMMEGA will notify other discovered Defects without undue delay upon their discovery. AMMEGA shall have no further inspection and Defects notification obligations.

- 8.3. If Supplier delivers Defective Products or does not deliver Products on time, AMMEGA shall, at its choice, be entitled to: (i) terminate Contract in whole or in part; (ii) withhold any payment due under Contract until Defective Products have been replaced or repaired or all delayed quantities have been fully delivered; (iii) to reject Defective or delayed Products and return them to Supplier at the Supplier's own risk and expense; (iv) require Supplier to repair or replace the Defective Products at its own costs and expenses, or to provide a full refund of the price of the Defective Products (if paid); (v) refuse to accept any subsequent delivery of Products which Supplier attempts to make; (vi) recover from Supplier any costs incurred by AMMEGA in obtaining substitute goods from a third party; (vii) claim damages for any other costs, loss or expenses incurred by AMMEGA which are in any way attributable to Supplier's failure to perform its obligations under Contract.

- 8.4. If Supplier delivers Defective Services or does not deliver Services on time, AMMEGA shall, at its choice, be entitled to: (i) terminate Contract in whole or in part; (ii) withhold any payments due under Contract until Supplier delivers Services in accordance with Contract; (iii) require Supplier to deliver Services in accordance with Contract; (iv) recover from Supplier any costs incurred by AMMEGA in outsourcing Services to a third party (vicarious performance); (v) claim damages for any other costs, loss or expenses incurred by AMMEGA which are in any way attributable to Supplier's failure to perform its obligations under Contract.

- 8.5. Notwithstanding and in addition to the foregoing, if Supplier fails to deliver Products or Services on time, Supplier shall, in any case, pay to AMMEGA delay damages equaling to 2% the total value of the relevant Contract for each commenced week of delay, up to a maximum of 10% of the total value of Contract, without prejudice to the right of AMMEGA of compensation of any further damages suffered. AMMEGA may deduct delay damages from the remuneration due to Supplier under Contract. If such delay damages does not suffice to compensate for the losses that AMMEGA has suffered from or in connection with such default (including without limitation any delay damages or compensations AMMEGA has to pay to AMMEGA's customers or any third party), Supplier shall further pay to AMMEGA the difference between the delay damages and the foregoing losses, and all such remedies shall not affect the rights and remedies granted to AMMEGA under these Conditions or Applicable Laws.

- 8.6. Supplier's obligation to deliver the Products or Services, and AMMEGA's right to claim compensation for expenses in connection with the delayed or Defective delivery from the Supplier will not be affected in any way whatsoever by payment of delay damages according to this Section 8.

9. LIABILITY. INDEMNIFICATION

- 9.1. Supplier shall be liable for any and all damages suffered by and/or caused to AMMEGA, its employees and/or any third parties (including Ammega's clients) due to the Supplier, its employees, agents and/or representatives.

- 9.2. Supplier shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless AMMEGA, contractors, directors, agents, employees, successors and assignees from and against any and all losses, expenses (including all reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses), liabilities, claims (including third-party claims), and damages AMMEGA may incur or suffer arising out of or in relation to the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of Supplier, Supplier's personnel and its affiliates.

- 9.3. Supplier shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless AMMEGA, its officers, employees, agents, successors, assignees, customers, and users of its products from and against any and all losses, expenses, damages, claims, suits and liabilities (including, without limitation, recall, repair and replacement expenses and other incidental and consequential damages, liquidated damages and contractual penalties, court costs, attorneys' and other professional fees, government imposed actions or liabilities) arising out of or relating to: (i) an actual or alleged breach of any express or implied warranty with respect to Products or Services; (ii) an actual or alleged breach of any terms contained in Contract, including these Conditions; (iii) any tort, negligence or other claims premised in whole or in part on either an actual or alleged Defect in Products or Services, including without limitation to personal injuries or property damages; or (iv) an actual or alleged infringement of applicable product liability laws based on such Defects in AMMEGA's products that are reasonably attributable to Products.

- 9.4. Supplier shall also indemnify and defend AMMEGA from and against all losses, damages and expenses incurred as a result of any claim that Products or Services, or any component thereof, infringe, misappropriate, or contribute to the infringement or misappropriation of any third-party property rights. Further Supplier shall replace any infringing Products or Services with substitute, non-infringing Products or Services that comply with Contract or procure the necessary license for AMMEGA to receive the full benefits under Contract of Products or Services.

- 9.5. Supplier shall be insured for a reasonable amount, but never less than the value of Products and Services it supplies under Contract, against all risks arising from product liability, including recall risks, and shall, upon request, prove such insurance to AMMEGA by presenting its insurance certificate.

10. CONFIDENTIALITY & ADVERTISING

- 10.1. Each party undertakes to treat as confidential any information ("Confidential Information") received from the other party, using the same degree of care to prevent disclosure to third parties as it would to avoid disclosure, publication or dissemination of its Confidential Information. The duties and obligations to keep secret and secure the Confidential Information shall bind Parties during the term of Contract and shall survive expiry or termination of Contract between Supplier and AMMEGA for a period of five (5) years, or for five (5) years from the last commercial contact (e.g., purchase order, invoice) between the Parties.

10.2. Confidential information shall include all drawings, technical documents or other technical information relating to the Products or Services, the production hereof and/or AMMEGA, submitted by AMMEGA to the Supplier, prior or subsequent to an order. Such information or material shall remain the property of AMMEGA and may not, without the written consent of AMMEGA, otherwise be used for any other purpose than for which they were provided, be copied, reproduced, transmitted or communicated to a third party.

10.3. Confidential information shall not include information that: (a) is or becomes generally available to the other party than through that party's breach of this Agreement; (b) becomes rightfully known by the other party from a third party that is under no obligation to maintain the confidentiality of such information; or (c) the other party can substantiate it possessed prior to receipt of the confidential information.

10.4. Recipient shall: (i) restrict the access, possession, knowledge, and use of the Confidential Information to its employees, Affiliate's employees, subcontractors or agents who are directly involved in the performance of Contract and only to the extent that such Confidential Information is needed to accomplish their Contract-related mission; (ii) ensure that any individual to whom Confidential Information is disclosed is bound by obligations of confidentiality and secrecy at least as stringent as those contained herein; and (iii) be fully responsible for any unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information by any individual to whom Confidential Information is disclosed as if such disclosure or breach were the Recipient's own. In the event Recipient is requested or required by law, regulation, supervisory authority or other applicable judicial or governmental order to disclose Confidential Information, the Recipient will provide AMMEGA prompt written notice of such requestor requirement so that AMMEGA may seek an appropriate protective order.

10.5. If an order involves processing of personal data (including log files) for which the AMMEGA is controller (as such term is defined in the EU or national legislation in force from time-to-time), the Supplier agrees (i) not to use such personal data for any purpose other than for the purposes of the Purchase Order and (ii) not to disclose it to any third party without AMMEGA's prior written consent (iii) undertakes to process them in full compliance with GDPR (Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016). The Supplier undertakes to take appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect personal data, which it processes according to the order.

10.6. Supplier shall not advertise or publish to any third party in any manner the fact that Supplier has contracted to furnish AMMEGA Products or Services covered by Contract or any terms of Contract (including prices), or use any trademarks, logos, photographs, video, any other digital media trade names of AMMEGA (collectively, the "Materials") in any press release, advertising or promotional materials, without AMMEGA's prior written approval.

10.7. Supplier, when using the AMMEGA logo or trademarks, shall (a) comply with all guidelines provided, either orally or in writing, from time to time by AMMEGA, and (b) submit for AMMEGA's written approval all advertising, promotional and communication materials containing any Materials. Supplier further undertakes not to register or exploit any trademarks, trade names, service marks, logos, domain names or the like that are identical or confusingly similar to AMMEGA logo.

10.8. Supplier shall not modify, alter or distribute to third parties any Materials (or any part thereof) without AMMEGA's prior written consent. Supplier undertakes to use the Materials only in relation to Products and Services.

10.9. Upon termination of the Contract, irrespective of the reason thereof, Supplier shall promptly and permanently cease and desist from using the Materials and return to AMMEGA or destroy, in accordance with AMMEGA's written instructions, all Materials.

11. INFORMATION SECURITY

Supplier shall be responsible for maintaining the security of its networks, data centers, systems and any means used to procure or provide the Products or Services in accordance with all Applicable Laws and for putting in place any measures reasonably necessary to prevent security issues, including a data security breach or other unauthorized access, the transmission of malicious code, or business interruption.

12. FORCE MAJEURE

12.1. For the purposes of this Section 12, "Force Majeure" means event or circumstances (or its effects) not existing on the date of Contract, that is unpredictable, cannot reasonably be avoided, is beyond the reasonable control of and exterior to the will of the Affected Party (as defined below), which is not due to the fault, negligence or breach of Contract by the Affected Party and which prevents the fulfillment, in whole or in part, of the Affected Party's contractual obligations. Force Majeure events may, to the extent the preceding definition is satisfied, include: (i) civil or foreign war, (ii) riots, (iii) strike, (iv) work stoppage, (v) fire, (vi) tremendous water damages, (vii) governmental decisions, (viii) enactment or implementation of regulations or legislation, court order, or any other restriction that has not been foreseeable, (ix) trade war, (x) explosion, (xi) natural disasters, and (xii) epidemic or pandemic diseases. For avoidance of doubt, the foregoing is a non-exhaustive list of potential Force Majeure events under the above definition.

12.2. If a Force Majeure event prevents a Party ("Affected Party") from complying with any of its obligations under Contract, the Affected Party shall be excused from performance and any liability for non-performance of those obligations, for so long and to the extent the Force Majeure event remains unavoidable to and outside the control of the Affected Party and the effects of the Force Majeure event cannot be mitigated by commercially reasonable measures.

12.3. The Affected Party shall inform the other Party in writing (by email with confirmation of receipt or any other appropriate means), within a commercially reasonable period of time following the occurrence or commencement of the Force Majeure event, of the specific circumstances which prevent the Affected Party from performing under Contract, along with the steps that are being taken to mitigate the impact of the Force Majeure event, and if possible, the expected duration of the suspension of the performance of its contractual obligations. The occurrence of a Force Majeure event does not discharge or otherwise release Supplier of its obligation to implement its disaster recovery plans.

12.4. If the Force Majeure event lasts for more than ninety (90) consecutive days from the date of the notice and prevents the Affected Party from performing its obligations under Contract during that period, the other Party is entitled, but not obliged, to terminate, as of right, Contract, with either immediate effect or subject to Reversibility Services and/or to an agreed period of notice without incurring any liability.

12.5. Neither Party shall be entitled to compensation from the other Party on account of a Force Majeure event.

13. TERMINATION

13.1. Termination for Cause. Without prejudice to any other rights and remedies a Party may have pursuant to the Applicable Laws or under Contract, and subject to the performance of Reversibility Services (at AMMEGA's sole discretion and option), either Party ("Non-defaulting Party") may terminate, as of right, Contract by giving written notice to the other Party if the latter ("Defaulting Party") commits a breach of Contract and fails to remedy that breach within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of written notice from the Non-defaulting Party.

13.2. Termination for Change of Control.

13.2.1. Supplier shall notify AMMEGA of any Change of Control as soon as possible and at the latest within thirty (30) days of such change of Control becoming effective. 16. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBCONTRACTING

Supplier shall not assign, subcontract or transfer any obligation or right under Contract without the prior written consent of AMMEGA, and any such assignment, subcontract, or transfer without AMMEGA’s consent shall be null and void. Supplier shall in all events remain fully liable to

17. NON-WAIVER

Either Party’s failure or delay to enforce a right or claim under Contract shall not be construed as a waiver or release of such claim, or similar claims which may arise in the future, or in any way prejudice any right of that Party under Contract. Supplier further warrants that it shall comply with all Applicable Laws in the relevant jurisdiction which it is subject to and shall complete all necessary steps in order for AMMEGA to legitimately process the aforementioned personal information on Supplier's behalf, including to obtain sufficient and necessary consent, filings, approvals, permits from individual data subjects, competent regulatory authorities, and/or any third parties. Supplier may request access to and correction of the personal information or exercise any other rights it may have in respect of this personal data. CZECH REPUBLIC

Following paragraph:

This document consists of two parts: Part A contains the terms and conditions that generally apply to all purchases of Products and Services carried out by AMMEGA worldwide.

Part B contains country specific sets of terms and conditions which amend and integrate Part A and which respectively apply in the relevant AMMEGA's jurisdiction only. In the case of a conflict or any discrepancy between Part A and Part B, the provisions of Part B shall prevail.

These Conditions shall apply exclusively. Differing or contrary terms shall not apply except if expressly agreed upon in writing. These Conditions shall also govern all future transactions between the Parties and shall also apply if AMMEGA accepts delivery despite knowledge of differing or contrary terms.

shall be amended to read as below:

Conditions are the business terms and conditions within the meaning of s. 1751 of Act No. 89/2012 Sb., the Civil Code, as amended (hereinafter referred to as "Civil Code").

Conditions are an integral part of Contract concluded between AMMEGA and the Supplier for deliveries of Products and Services made to AMMEGA, if the Agreement/Purchase order confirmed by Supplier refers to Conditions within the meaning of s. 1751/ 1 of the Civil Code, or if Agreement was concluded/Purchase order was confirmed by Supplier after Supplier had accepted (confirmed) especially with signature of Supplier these Conditions.

Receipt of Products or Services shall not be construed as a tacit acceptance by AMMEGA of Supplier's conditions.

Section 1. Purchase Orders and Order confirmation

Section 1 point 1.3. shall be amended to read as below:

1.3. AMMEGA reserves the right to revoke all or any part of a Purchase Order for convenience upon written notice to Supplier without payment or further liability to Supplier. Within the meaning of s.1738 Code Civil Purchase Order may be revoked only if the revocation reaches Supplier before Supplier has dispatched the acceptance of the Purchase Order.

Section 1 point 1.5. shall be amended to read as below:

1.5. Any departure in the order confirmation from Purchase Order received shall be considered agreed only once expressly confirmed in writing or electronically by AMMEGA. Therefore, within the meaning of s. 1740/3 (last sentence) Civil Code the conclusion of a Contract based on the acceptance of Purchase Order with an addendum or a variation is expressly excluded, even if it is an addendum or a variation which does not substantially alter the terms of Purchase order. The same shall apply to subsequent Contract amendments.

Section 3. Delivery of Services

Section 3 point 3.4. shall be amended to read as below:

3.4. Title to Services shall transfer to AMMEGA upon the performance of the Services. Within the meaning of s. 2604 Civil Code Services are presumed to have been performed once Services have been completed and handed over.

Section 7. Representations and warranties

Section 7 shall be supplemented by the following new paragraph:

7.6. For clarification, Supplier hereby expressly provides AMMEGA with a warranty within the meaning of Section 2113, Section 2114 et seq. Civil Code.

Supplier primarily warrants (guarantees) that for the duration of the warranty period – under agreed (otherwise normal) use – all Products or Services will be free of Defects, will retain their functions and performance and will have the properties listed in this Section 7 and will meet the requirements listed in this Section 7 or arising from this Section 7.

The length of the warranty period is always 2 years commencing on the date upon which AMMEGA accepts Products or Services, unless longer warranty period is stated especially in this Section 7 (this does not exclude the provision of a longer warranty period by Supplier, e.g. in an individual contract or warranty statement).

AMMEGA has the right arising from the warranty to, in particular:

- i. withdraw from Contract in whole or in part,
- ii. have Defect removed by having a new Defect-free Product/Service or missing Product/Service (missing part of it) supplied,
- iii. the removal of Defect by having Product/Service repaired,
- iv. a reasonable reduction of the price of Product/Service.

The choice of warranty rights belongs to AMMEGA.

Without prejudice to other claims of AMMEGA, in the event that Supplier does not remove the notified Defect within a reasonable time or if Supplier refuses to remove the notified Defect, AMMEGA is entitled to remove Defect itself or by a third party, with Supplier being obliged to reimburse AMMEGA for the costs incurred for removal Defects, within 14 days of their application by AMMEGA. Removing Defect at the Supplier's expense does not void the warranty or limit its scope.

Without prejudice to other claims of AMMEGA, in the event that Supplier does not remove the notified Defect within a reasonable time or if Supplier refuses to remove the notified Defect, AMMEGA is entitled to withdraw from Contract in whole or in part.

This does not affect other obligations of Supplier and rights of AMMEGA.

Section 8. Delays. Defects

Section 8 point 8.3. shall be amended to read as below:

8.3. If Supplier delivers Defective Products or does not deliver Products on time, AMMEGA shall, at its choice, be entitled to: (i) withdraw from Contract in whole or in part; (ii) withhold any payment due under Contract until Defect Products have been replaced or repaired or all delayed quantities have been fully delivered; (iii) to reject Defective or delayed Products and return them to Supplier at the Supplier's own risk and expense; (iv) require Supplier to repair or replace the rejected Products at its own costs and expenses, or to provide a full refund of the price of the rejected Products (if paid); (v) procure the substitute Products in question at Supplier's expense from a third party and recover from Supplier any costs incurred by AMMEGA in obtaining substitute goods from a third party; (vii) claim damages for any other costs, loss or expenses incurred by AMMEGA which are in any way attributable to Supplier's failure to perform its obligations under Contract. The above mentioned shall not affect the rights and remedies granted to AMMEGA under the Czech law (especially but not only rights arising from a defective performance).

Section 8 point 8.4. shall be amended to read as below:

8.4. If Supplier delivers Defective Services or does not deliver Services on time, AMMEGA shall, at its choice, be entitled to: (i) withdraw from Contract in whole or in part; (ii) withhold any payments due under Contract until Supplier delivers Services in accordance with Contract; (iii); (iv) require Supplier to deliver Services in accordance with Contract; (v) outsource Services to a third party at Supplier's expense and recover from Supplier any costs incurred by AMMEGA in outsourcing Services to a third party (vicarious performance); (vii) claim damages for any other costs, loss or expenses incurred by AMMEGA which are in any way attributable to Supplier's failure to perform its obligations under Contract. The above mentioned shall not affect the rights and remedies granted to AMMEGA under the Czech law (especially but not only rights arising from a Defective performance).

Section 8 point 8.5. shall be amended to read as below:

8.5. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Supplier fails to deliver Products or Services on time, Supplier shall, in any case, pay to AMMEGA contractual penalty equaling to 2% the total value of the relevant Contract for each commenced week of delay, up to a maximum of 10% of the total value of Contract. AMMEGA may deduct contractual penalty from the remuneration due to Supplier under Contract. If such contractual penalty does not suffice to compensate for the losses that AMMEGA has suffered from or in connection with such default (including without limitation any delay damages or compensations AMMEGA has to pay to AMMEGA's customers or any third party), Supplier shall further pay to AMMEGA the difference between the contractual penalty and the foregoing losses, and all such remedies shall not affect the rights and remedies granted to AMMEGA under these Conditions or Applicable Laws.

Section 8 point 8.6. shall be amended to read as below:

8.6. Supplier's obligation to deliver Products or Services, and AMMEGA's right to claim compensation for expenses in connection with the delayed or Defective delivery from Supplier will not be affected in any way whatsoever by payment of contractual penalty according to this Section 8. The provision of s. 2049 Civil Code will apply so payment of a contractual penalty does not relieve the Supplier of the duty to discharge the debt corroborated by the contractual penalty.

Section 12. Force Majeure

Section 12 point 12.4. shall be amended to read as below:

12.4. If the Force Majeure event lasts for more than ninety (90) consecutive days from the date of the notice and prevents the Affected Party from performing its obligations under Contract during that period, the other Party is entitled, but not obliged, to terminate, as of right, Contract, with either immediate effect and/or to an agreed period of notice without incurring any liability.

Section 13. Termination

Section 13 point 13.1. shall be amended to read as below:

13.1. Termination for Cause. Without prejudice to any other rights and remedies a Party may have pursuant to Applicable Laws or under Contract, either Party ("Non-defaulting Party") may terminate, as of right, Contract without notice period by giving written notice of termination to the other Party ("Defaulting Party") if the Defaulting Party commits a breach of Contract and fails to remedy such breach within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of written request for remedy from the Non-defaulting Party.

Section 13 point 13.2.2. shall be amended to read as below:

13.2.2. Change of Control of Supplier without notice constitutes a material breach of Contract, and AMMEGA may, without incurring any liability or financial obligation, terminate Contract without notice period, as of right, by giving notice of termination in writing to Supplier within thirty (30) days of (i) the Change of Control becoming effective or (ii) the date AMMEGA becomes aware of such Change of Control, whichever is later.

Section 13 point 13.3. shall be amended to read as below:

13.3. Termination with immediate effect. Subject to Applicable Laws, either Party may, without incurring any liability or financial obligation, terminate, as of right, Contract without notice period by giving written notice of termination to the other Party if the other Party, at any time, (i) suffers an event including winding-up, dissolution, administration, bankruptcy (this right lasts after the declaration of bankruptcy for the assets of the other Party even for the period during which the insolvency administrator can state that he will fulfill Contract), liquidation, insolvency, receivership or any analogous proceeding and/or any step taken in relation to it; (ii) ceases operations or substantially all of its assets are sold; (ii) breaches Sections 7) (Representations and warranties), 10 (Confidentiality § Advertising) or 9 (Indemnification. The notice period is ninety (90) days. The notice period commences on the first day following the day in which the notice of termination reached Supplier.

Section 13 point 13.5. shall be deleted.

14.1. An order and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with it shall be governed by, and interpreted in accordance with, the laws of the country or state where AMMEGA has its registered office, excluding the choice of law provisions. The application of the UN Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods 1980 is expressly excluded.

In the event that Czech law applies to Contract: In cases not regulated by Contract, the relations between AMMEGA and Supplier shall be governed by the relevant provisions of Act No. 89/2012 Coll., Civil Code, as amended. Application of Section 1757 (2) (3), Section 1799, Section 1800, Section 1950, Section 1978 (2), Section 2050, Section 2605 (2) and Section 2613 of the Civil Code is excluded in connection with Contract.
